MEMORANDUM FOR: ~~General Carter~~

Mr. McCone has requested that as soon as a special mission, such as Ambassador Byroade's team or General Draper's team, has completed its work that he be given a prompt briefing by the CIA representative and by appropriate experts in the Agency on the subject. The DCI wants the report itself made available to him promptly with a very brief summary of the principal findings.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

SUBJECT : Reports of Interdepartmental Inspection Teams

REFERENCE: Memorandum for General Carter from []
1 November 1962, Subject: Reports of Interdepartmental Inspection Teams

STATINTL

1. With reference to [] memorandum to me on 1 November indicating that you want a prompt briefing by the CIA representative on Interdepartmental teams, the report to be available to you promptly and a brief summary of the principal findings, the following are the facts with reference to the Byroade mission.

STATINTL

a. When the Byroade team returned both Mr. Kirkpatrick and myself talked to Ambassador Byroade and reported briefly to you on the general findings and conclusions which were almost completely favorable.

b. On 9 October [] the CIA representative on the Byroade team, briefed the senior staff meeting of the findings of that team.

STATINTL

c. The initial copies (carbons) of the Byroade report were received in the Agency by me on Friday, 17 October, and were sent to the Deputy Director (Plans) inasmuch as Byroade was scheduled to make a presentation to the Special Group the following week.

STATINTL

d. A second copy (the original), the official one from [] was received in your office for your use at the same time; on 24 October it was also sent by your office directly []
